

Chicken Wild Rice Soup

Whole bird · thick & creamy · Upper Midwest style

YIELD	TIME	POTS
~6 L	~2.5 hr	10 qt + 8 qt

INGREDIENTS

CHICKEN & RICE		SOUP BASE
Whole chicken 4.5–5 lb	2.0–2.3 kg	Unsalted butter	150 g
Water poach	6000 g	Onion · carrot · celery diced	360 · 270 · 270 g
Wild rice	325 g	Cremini sliced	400 g
Water rice	1800 g	Garlic minced	22 g
Heavy cream	430 g	All-purpose flour	110 g
Kosher salt start	10 g	Dry sherry	55 g
Black pepper	4 g	Better Than Bouillon Roasted Chicken	30 g
Lemon juice	18 g	Dried thyme · bay leaves	2 g · 2
Parsley chopped	15 g

METHOD

- 1 Poach: chicken + 6000 g water in the 10 qt pot. Bare simmer, never a boil, until the thigh hits 175°F (~1 hr).
- 2 Rice (meanwhile): 325 g wild rice in 1800 g salted water, covered, simmer until the kernels split (30–60 min). Drain.
- 3 Pull: bird out, meat off, skin and bones tossed. Shred. The pot liquid is your stock — keep 2500 g, save the rest.
- 4 Vegetables: 8 qt pot, 150 g butter. Onion, carrot, celery until soft (~10 min). Mushrooms until browned (~10 min). Garlic, 1 min.
- 5 Thicken: 110 g flour, stir 2 min. 55 g sherry. Whisk in the 2500 g stock gradually, then 30 g Better Than Bouillon, thyme, bay, 5 g salt. Simmer 20–30 min, stirring the bottom, until thick.
- 6 Finish: bay out. Chicken, rice, 430 g cream in; heat without boiling. Taste, then the rest of the salt, pepper, lemon. Parsley on top.

IF IT'S OFF

Weak on chicken	More Better Than Bouillon, before more salt
Flat	Salt — the chicken and rice soak it up
Heavy	Lemon
Leftovers too thick	Thin with the saved stock
